RUSSIANS REPULSED BY THE JAPANESE

Mikado's Soldiers Re-Capture Their Lost Ground.

RUSSIAN LOSS 4,000; JAPS' 20

Japanese Believed that the Russians Will Not Attempt Any More Flank Movements Soon—Russians Had 100,000 Soldiers in the Field.

General Oku's Headquarters, Jan. 30.—Noon, via Tien Tsin, Feb. 3.—The Russian attempt to turn General Oku's left flank has proved a complete failure. Following on the failure of the recent cavalry raid down the railway, it is thought, the Japanese will probably induce the Russians to await in the future the Japanese attacks.

The attempt, even with bombardment of other portions of the line or a cavalry movement around the flank, was doomed to failure from the start. The Japanese were at Heikouttai, but withdrew its small force from there and allowed the Russians to occupy the positions until they could move over enough men to make its recapitulation certain. The capture of this position was easily accomplished, although the loss was heavy. The casualties have not yet been reported, but it is believed that they will amount to full 3,000. Te Russians had five divisions engaged at Heikoutai and in that direction. They were driven back by less than two Japanese divisions.

Over 100,000 men were engaged in the Russian demonstration against the Japanese positions immediately east of Heikoutai, a force strong enough to have been successful as only about one division was sent against them. The Russian loss is estimated at over 4,000, and the prisoners say one regiment was practically annihilated.

The Japanese loss is placed at only 20, due to the fact that they remained in their trenches while the Russians were forced to cross open ground, solidly frozen, where the construction of shelter trenches was impossible. The ground being covered with snow was naturally a great disadvantage to the attacking force, as it was plainly visible against the white background for a long distance. The Japanese suffered the same disadvantages in the capture of Heikoutai. The weather was very cold during the fighting, the minimum being 6 degrees below zero and the maximum 14 degrees above zero. The Russians did not retreat north, but retired well out of range with no sign of further activity.

During the fighting the left wing of the Japanese was heavily bombarded from the Russian positions along the whole front. The Japanese made but a feeble reply.

News from Mukden.

Mukden, Feb. 1, via Tien Tsin, Feb. 3.—(Delayed in Transmission.)—All the natives of Holantao and Fuchinchunang, who were let through the lines during the Russian occupation, arrived at Mukden on Jan. 31, except a few who were killed in battle. The impression is general among the Russian troops on the right flank that either General Nodu or General Nogi was present at Sandiapu, where the Russians ascribe their greatest losses to cleverly concealed batteries behind the main works. The Japanese withdrew from their outer works at Sandiapu, which, at one time the Russians occupied. General Mitschenko was still advancing carrying out a flanking movement intending to cut the railway north of Liao Yang, and was taking outpost after outpost with prisoners when an order to retire came.

Although entrenched, the infantry was more than successfully combatted by the cavalry, as happened heretofore.

Society Woman Found Starving.

New York, Feb. 4.—Self-imprisonment in her home of former wealth and luxury in Flushing, L. I., Mrs. John Roland Enos, formerly of San Francisco, the young widow of a wealthy man well known a few years ago in the clubs of New York and Philadelphia, has been found delirious and starving. A faithful woman who had remained after reverses gave the alarm which brought neighbors to the scene. Three doctors who were called pronounced it a case of plain starvation and advised that Mrs. Enos be removed at once to a sanitarium, but this could not be done, as she was without means. Loss of relatives by death, accompanied by the loss of her fortune, reducing her from a life of luxury to one of poverty, is thought to have weakened her mind.

BROKE PROFESSSOR'S SKULL.

Pupil of School for Negroes Fatally Injures Teacher.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 4.—T. L. Cotton, one of the professors of the Georgia State college for colored youths at Thunderbolt, was struck on the head with a brick thrown Thursday afternoon by Sammie Bowen, one of the students. The professor was taken to one of the city hospitals, where an operation was performed.

At first Cotton did not seem badly hurt, but later he became delirious and an examination showed his skull was fractured. Bowen was arrested and is now in the lockup at Thunderbolt.

Professor Cotton died at the hospital without regaining consciousness since the operation was performed.

Bowen says the professor had cuffed him and put him out of the recitation room for talking, following him outside and threateninfg him with a stick, whereupon he threw the brick.

Johnston, N. Y., Feb. 4.—The family of J. Antis, consisting of Antis, his wife and two grown up daughters, are supposed to have perished in a fire which destroyed their home in this city early today. The house was completely enveloped in flames when neighbors discovered the fire, but owing to the density of the smoke all efforts to gain admission to the burning strucutre were futile. Antis and his wife and daughters were known to have been at home and no traces of them have been found.

Bystanders interfered at this juncture and prevented further trouble.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 4.—This vicinity today is being hunted over by a posse in an attempt to find the murderer of George Williams, a young man in the village of Watchung, who was found dead in his sleigh on the road Tuesday. Williams had started out to drive a well dressed stranger to Warrenville and that was the last seen of him until he was found dead. The stranger has disappeared and no motive for the crime can be learned.

BLIZZARD IS RAGING OVER THE COUNTRY

Harbor At New York Almost Blocked By Ice.

TEXAS IS COVERED WITH SLEET

Mercury Drops to Lowest Point in Many Places—If Cold Weather Continues, a Complete Suspension of Traffic is Feared.

New York, Feb. 4.—Marine traffic in the harbor and in the westerly end of Long Island sound was badly hampered today by ice. Only powerful steam craft could force their way through the fields of floating ice, composed of floes broken from the ice sheet over the Hudson river and of the thick ice formed last night. As the wind and tide shifted, the ice moved rom on eside o the harbor and from one river to the other. Ferry boats were much delayed or altogether, tied up. Long Island sound for several miles east of Hell Gate, is packed with ice. Nothing was able to navigate but steam vessels and they make slow progress. Sailing vessels are practically frozen in.

If the cold snap continues for a few days it is feared that traffic in the harbor will be tied up.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 4.—One of the heaviest snowfalls in recent years has spread its mantle to a depth of six inches over the central south. In Memphis the thermometer registered 7 degrees above zero at 7 o'clock this morning. Snow began failing at midnight and continued until 7 o'clock today. Street car service in this city is demoralized and business is practically at a standstill. All trains are reported from two to six hours late.

The same conditions are reported from points in Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas. The latter reported the snow turned into sleet, and much suffering by tenants of small farm houses is reported. Live stock in some localities is suffering intensely from the sold and storm.

Kansas City, Feb. 4.—A blizzard prevailed today throughout Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, and was general in Arkansas, with below zero temperatures in Missouri and Kansas. The snowfall in Missouri and Kansas averaged 4 inches; from 1 to 2 inches in Oklahoma and 5 inches in Arkansas. The coldest point in Kansas was at Concordia, with 12 below zero. It was 7 degrees below zero at Kansas City, 2 above at Oklahoma City and 16 degrees above zero at Ft. Smith, Ark.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 4.—The coldest weather in six years was experienced today in this city when the thermometer reached 16 below zero.

The bank of this place is closed on account of the death of F. E. Williams, he being vice-president.

In the death of F. E. Williams, which occurred at noon on Thursday, Alachua county has lost one of its most prominent and strongest citizens. No death could have been felt more, and it seems that it has effected business generally. Mr. Williams was a man greatly liked by the people—one who was ever ready to help those who deserved help—and was a stimulating post in business circles in our city. Hundreds of friends have viewed the remains, and a large number followed the remains to their last resting place at Newnansville Saturday at 9 o'clock.

SCHOOL IS O. K.

Dr. J. L. Kelley Pays the Hatchett Creek School Fine Compliment.

Dr. J. L. Kelley, superintendent of public instruction for Alachua county, has returned from an official visit to Hatchett Creek school, near Orange Heights.

Superintendent Kelley states that, while the school is small, he found everything in excellent condition, and good work being done. The enrollment is sixteen, with an average attendance of fourteen, which is indeed a creditable showing. The school is under the direction of Miss Josephine McComb, one of the most efficient and most popular young lady teachers in the county.

Dr. Kelley desires The Sun to state that he proposes to pay an official visit to all the schools of the county as soon as his health and his duties will permit. He has been unfortunate, in that he has been indisposed for the past three weeks, but he has the educational interests of the county at heart, and proposes to make official visits at regular intervals as soon as he can get his affairs properly adjusted.

Peake of the High Springs-Citra run, was compromised Friday in Justice Colman's court, John Williams of Grove Park, father of the accused man, having intervened and settled that matter by returning to Conductor Peake the amount lost and paying the costs of the proceedings.

Convicts Make Daring Escape.

Huntsville, Tex., Feb. 4.—Two convicts made a daring and novel escape from the penitentiary here. They overpowered the engineer and fireman of a switch engine in the ground of the penitentiary and steamed through the other gates while the guards were firing upon them. The engineer and fireman leaped from the engine while going at full speed, both being injured. The convicts ran the engine 5 miles, where they abandoned it and took to the woods. One of the fugitives is Addison Tippens, who was sentenced for life for murdering his father.

RENEWED DISORDERS OCCUR IN RUSSIA

Conflict At Lodz Occur Between Strikers and Police.

MAXIM GORKY IS NOT RELEASED

Over Three Hundred Have Been Killed at Warsaw Since Strike Begun—Coal famine Threatens the Industrial Centers.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—Renewed disorders have occurred at Lodz, in Russian Poland, where a conflict between troops and strikers resulted in the killing of six persons and the wounding of 48. The disorders resulted from an attempt on the part of the strikers to prevent some men from returning to work. The troops were called out and fired into the strikers, who replied with revolver shots.

Strikes were begun today in the coal mining districts of Dombrowa and Sosnovice. As many important manufacturing centers are dependent on these mines for fuel, it is feared that the strike will have a serious effect on the industrial situation.

According to the best information obtainable, more than three hundred persons were killed during the disturbances in Warsaw. A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the report that Maxim Gorgy was released proves to be premature. Detailed dispatches relating to the fighting along the Shakhe river Jan. 25-29 show that the engagement was of larger proportions than earlier reports indicated.

Field Marshal Oyama reports that his losses were 7,000, while he estimates the Russian casualties at 10,000. The actual result of the fighting is not definitely determined, beyond the fact that it has not materially altered the positions of the two extensive lines and that the Russian attempt to advance was checked.

Warsaw, Feb. 4.—Serious disorders broke out today at Lodz, where 25,000 men are on strike. Some of the employes of a lace factory attempted to return to work and the remainder forcibly prevented them. The strong military patrol was summoned and attacked and fired at the strikers, who replied with revolver shots. It is reported over the telephone that the firing was continued at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Strikes were started this morning in the coal districts of Dombrowa and Sosnovice. It is feared they will have a serious effect on the industrial situation generally. Warsaw, Lodz and other important centers entirely dependent for their coal supply on these districts.

According to the best information obtainable, the official list of persons killed during the disturbances here contains over 300 names, in addition to many unidentified bodies lying at the receiving vaults in the cemetery. The unidentified dead will be buried tonight.

A group of soldiers outside a liquor store last night fired on passersby, killing a shopkeeper and wounding another man.

More Trouble Is Feared.

Abbeville, Ga., Feb. 4.—Information at Rhine is to the effect that parties on both sides of the affair are heavily armed and bloodshed is likely. All the wounded in the difficulty are reported as doing fairly well, except Tom Coffee. He is not expected to live. Lee Roy Burnham was arrested yesterday, but was turned loose, as no one seemed disposed to swear out a warrant. Indications are that more trouble will follow.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 4.—This morning a baby boy, one month old, was found at the door of Bishop C. B. Galloway, in this city. The little one was wrapped in a blanket, and was very emaciated. The police are now investigating the case, but no clew to the parentage of the child has been discovered.

R. R. EXTENSION PROGRESSING WELL

J. & S.-W. Will Reach Suwannee River Within Three Months.

THE PEOPLE ARE JUBILANT

They are Happy Over the Prospect That They Will Soon be Living in a New Sphere—Demand for Land Great—Big Influx Anticipated.

With the progress of the extension of the Jacksonville and Southwestern Railroad from Newberry westward to Perry, the good people of the section which it is proposed to traverse are becoming more elated, because they realize that the construction of the road will virtually place them in a new world. For generations those people have labored under the great disadvantage of absence of transportation, the only mode being by private conveyance.

Perry M. Colson, who has just returned from the West End, states that rapid progress is being made on the extension, and that at the present rate, within the next three months the road will be completed and in operation from Newberry, the present terminus, to the Suwannee River, a distance of about twenty-three miles.

The extension of this road is resulting in a general influx to that country. There are a great many who want to make homestead entries, many of whom have already done so, and the United States land office is daily receiving inquiries regarding lands in this new country. The country is also rich in phosphate and timber, which will naturally extend the naval stores and mining industry. It is also a magnificent farming country, with fertile soil capable of growing as fine and prolific crops as can be produced in the United States.

Fortune and prosperity is indeed smiling on the good people of Western Alachua, LaFayette and Taylor counties, and they have a right to feel jubilant.

ARE EXTENDING LINES.

East Florida Telephone Company are Covering New Territory.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

E. E. Voyle of the East Florida Telephone Company made a brief visit to McIntosh yesterday, where he went to look after the interest of the line.

The system, which extends from Gainesville to various points in the county, is one of the most convenient in the State. It reaches a most thrifty class of people, and as a result is enjoying a fine patronage. The line is now being extended to Evinston from Micanopy, and by the end of the present week will be in operation. It will afford the merchants and growers of Evinston and intermediate points an opportunity to communicate with Gainesville, with the result that a most satisfactory service may be performed.

The East Florida Telephone System, which is gradually being perfected, is a matter of local interest. It is an enterprise in which home people are solely interested, and besides being an encouragement to them it is a convenience which will prove worthy of the patronage of the people.

MRS. M'CREARY HONORED.

Presented With Beautiful Token in Retiring as President of Kirby Smith.

Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., held one of the most interesting meetings since their organization on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. McKinstry, Jr. It was the last regular business meeting of the present administration, and there were twenty-two members present, all eager to do honor to the retiring president, Mrs. H. H. McCreary, who has been the presiding officer of Kirby Smith Chapter for the past four years.

One of the pleasant features of the meeting was the presentation from the Chapter to Mrs. McCreary of a beautiful silver fruit stand as an expression of the high regard which the members of Kirby Smith Chapter feel for their retiring president. Mrs. J. N. Strobhar, the newly elected president, made the presentation with the following remarks:

"Madam President: Before beginning the regular order of business may I ask the privilege of expressing to you the affection and esteem which we, the members of Kirby Smith Chapter, feel for you, our retiring president. During the past four years, we know that your first thought has been for the cause of Kirby Smith Chapter; that you have 'piloted' us through shadows and sunshine, and leave us upon a fine foundation; with ninety-two members, next to the largest Chapter in the Florida Division, and one of the most prosperous, proves the result of your labor of love for your loyal Daughters.

"Though others will occupy your chair at the president's desk, we will always look to you as our head, and as the years go by your administration will be pointed to as the most prosperous and eventful in the history of 'Kirby Smith.'

"And now, Madam President, in the name of your Chapter, we offer you this gift as a token of our love, and we ask you to accept it as an offering, expressive of our appreciation for the service you have given to Kirby Smith Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy."

Mrs. McCreary replied with a heart to heart talk, which appealed to all ladies present, and which still further endears her to the members of Kirby Smith.

CARNEGIE TO THE RESCUE.

There have been a good many sensations growing out of the affairs of the Chadwicks, and not the least of them by any means is that now created by Mr. Carnegie. The public is not informed as to the cause which has induced the millionaire to come to the financial rescue of persons in Oberlin who suffered through Mrs. Chadwick's operations. Only the bald fact that he has done so is given out and so, for the present, every one can think as he pleases. Whether Mr. Carnegie will go still further and pay all of the Cleveland woman's debts is a matter of speculation. The case would not be so remarkable if it were not for what has gone before. Mr. Carnegie announced years ago that it was a disgrace to die poor. Both before that announcement and since he has given away a great many millions in the way of establishing public libraries and such like, but there is a suspicion that he has plenty left. Perhaps he sees in the Chadwick case a fine opportunity to still further deplete his fortune. Mrs. Chadwick has proved that she is a very energetic distributor of other people's money, and may be just the personage that Carnegie needs to save him the disgrace of dying with money in his clothes. He is getting old and his efforts to get rid of his surplus cash have proved a severe strain. With Mrs. Chadwick's valuable assistance all this can be changed.

But his assistance will not relieve the old banker at Oberlin, Ohio, who was wrecked financially and is now a broken-down man physically and will never recover from the shock of his transactions with the magnetic Chadwick woman.

WALK MORE.

The Americans as a rule are not addicted to much walking, says W. Alford Green in Outing for February. The reason may be found in the fact that transportation facilities, by means of steam, elevated and surface railroads, are so plentiful, that the temptation to ride cannot be resisted. There is the additional reason that the American citizen must perforce do everything in a hurry, and, in keeping with this idea, the business man rides to and from his employment—where in many cases he might walk with benefit to himself in every way—on the same principle that he takes his luncheon at the rush counter. The feverish haste in eating meals, coupled with the disinclination to take even moderate walking exercise, is undoubtedly the cause of the dyspepsia which generally afflicts the American people, and which produces the pasty complexion seen almost universally in the youth of today. How unfavorably these complexions compare with the rosy cheeks of the young men and women of England, who have yet to learn the dire results of rapid-fire eating, and who have not yet given up the walking habit!

Florida is the State where walking is more beneficial to those who come here for health than many suppose, and those who have taken the pains to inquire into the matter have learned that those who come here in feeble health and are unable to walk but a short distance at first, by degrees become strong enough to go on foot and with but little fatigue, many times as far as when they first attempted the walking exercise.

There is no better way to gain strength than by walking—increasing the distance a little at a time, and the exercise is practiced with good results by many who come to Gainesville to recuperate their health.

The mother of the President of France is dead at the age of ninety-two years. She lived on her farm in the Commune of Marsanne, where her son was born. She preferred her home life in the country to the atmosphere of Paris, for there she could wear her homespun dress and her gingham apron. Without them, according to her mode of life, she would have been uncomfortable even if not unhappy. Provident, frugal and simple in all her habits, she was like the mother of the great Napoleon, prepared to take her son in case of adversity. "Who knows," said Madame Letizia Bonaparte when asked why she did not live in Paris during the splendor of the Empire, "but that I may yet have to feed all these Emperors and Kings." So thinking she gave her attention to the family estate in Corsica.

If Swayne is impeached it will make plenty of work for Congress for some time to come, as there are six others that are on the list. Judge not, lest ye be "jugged."

AFTER THE FREEZE.

The effect of the recent cold snap in Alachua county, from careful investigation, shows no serious damage, and with the mercury at 18 degrees on Wednesday, the coldest night, Mr. J. R. Zetrouer had no fire in his grove, and he sends The Sun the following, which will be of interest to all our readers:

"ROCHELLE, FLA., Feb. 2d, 1905.

"Editor Sun: I send you by Mrs. Hill three fruit and four sprigs—two sprigs of the second to last and two of the last growth, on my grape fruit trees, which I have just taken from the tree today. You will readily see that the fruit is more or less damaged, but my trees are all right, there being a few of the smallest trees a little damaged in the top. In about four acres of bearing grove the damage done by the late freeze will not amount to anything, and unless we are smote on the other cheek, we will be all right for a crop of fruit for this year.

"I have been in the orange business for about thirty years, and while I do not claim to be an expert or a 'know-all,' I will add that the damage to fruit standing on the trees during a freeze is in proportion to the size of the grove, tree and the amount of sap in the tree. For instance, fruit on a large tree will stand one and a half to two degrees more cold than one on a small tree; and fruit on a tree with a low sap will stand three degrees more cold without being damaged than with a full sap. Fruit will not be injured to any extent at 28 degrees with full sap and 26 with low sap in the tree, and grape fruit will stand two degrees more cold than the orange—that is, the fruit.

"Of the fruit I send you, one was resting on the ground, the other two being about 15 inches above ground. I shipped a carload on Tuesday, January 31st, which was housed before the cold. Yours very truly,

"J. R. ZETROUER."

The fruit we received through the courtesy of Mrs. Hill was of large size, and one was said to be almost white when picked, but had again assumed a better color. One was a healthy yellow and a beautiful specimen. The sprigs from the trees were in a very healthy condition, and if there had been any damage to the leaves it was not apparent.

From all we can learn it is safe to say that fruit trees in Alachua county are not injured to any great amount by the freeze.

THE CATALPA TREE.

It would seem that there is no end to the vast possibilites in the way of resources of Florida, and these resources are daily being developed. We look back for only a few years and find that the vast pine forests of the State were but a source of expense to the owner, and many of the owners, from the expenses and taxation of these lands, had been forced to abandon them. But conditions are now radically reversed; now every available body of such lands either have been or are being absorbed and detimbered, and there is no shutting out the fact that in but a few years we will have but little pine timber left. When this time arrives where will the fence posts, the cross-ties, etc., come from? Our answer to this proposition is that in the propagation and cultivation of the catalpa tree we have the solution. It is a well known fact that the catalpa in the hammock lands in this section grows to perfection, and that for fence posts, cross-ties, etc., there is no better timber in the world, as it practically lasts indefinitely, and, it is said, never rots. This tree can easily be propagated from the cuttings and every owner of land should plant at least enough to supply himself with fence posts. This industry, from the necessities of the case, will prove to be profitable beyond expectations, and to prove the extent of the profit, we will, as an illustration, take one acre and from this show how the profit comes. These trees from the cutting can be planted 4x4 feet, which gives, say 2,700 plants per acre. At the end of four years we have 2,700 trees which will average at least five fence posts to each tree, which will be worth here not less than ten cents each, which renders the gross returns from one acre of $1,350. Now what can be more profitable than this proposition, and for cross-ties the proposition is even more enticing, as the price is much greater. This tree does its own growing and needs but little cultivation, and therein lies the possibilities of the profit. Let someone of our many prosperous farmers or land owners fully demonstrate this proposition. There is no limit to it and he who first embraces the opportunity will surely win out.

China always manages to rake in a full share of trouble. Both Russia and Japan seem eager to carry their war into Chinese territory, and if they do who is going to stop them? For some time it has been known that the Russian government has felt that China was either unable or unwilling to preserve her neutrality and that a widening of the war zone might become necessary. It is said from St. Petersburg that the agreement of the powers at Secretary Hay's suggestion to limit the area of hostilities was accepted by Russia in good faith, but that since China is not able to make good the strict letter of the agreement, it may soon find a blur on it. Of course, this is not the diplomatic language used, but it is sufficient for its present purpose.

Through the compliments of Hon. B. E. McLin, commissioner of agriculture for the State of Florida. The Sun is in receipt of an exhaustive document descriptive of the history, topography, climate, soil and resources of this State, prepared in the interest of immigration. It is illustrated with numerous half-tone cuts of the public buildings of Florida, as well as growing crops. The figures are authoritative, and the only drawback is that it will not get the circulation it deserves.

The preacher was innocent in it and did not intend to cast a reflection on the choir, when one day most of the singers had bad colds and their seats were empty he selected a hymn he thought the entire congregation could sing, and said: "Since Providence has seen fit to afflict the choir with bad colds let us all join in singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." Most of the choir were so mad they talked of resigning.

CARNEGIE TURNED DOWN SUGGESTION

Dr. Hodges Suggested a Contribution for Public Hospital.

LIBRARIES KEEP HIM BUSY.

The Man Who Says It's a Disgrace to Die Rich Says He is Too Busy Making Contributions and Building Marble Front Libraries.

The reporter learned Saturday that Dr. J. Harrison Hodges has had some correspondence with Andrew Carnegie, the great millionaire, in reference to the building of a public hospital for Alachua county. Some weeks ago Dr. Hodges wrote Mr. Carnegie and explained the need of a public hospital here and the efforts which were being made to secure one, and the difficulties encountered in raising the necessary funds, and mildly suggested that a contribution would be thankfully received.

Mr. Carnegie, who says it is a disgrace to die rich, writes that he is busy giving away his money to build free public libraries and connot give any assistance to hospitals now. Dr. Hodges received a letter from him to this effect a few days ago in which he said: "My field of free public libraries proves more than wide enough to absorb all the time and attention I can give and I must restrict myself to it."

We do not presume to advise Mr. Carnegie what to do with the millions which he says he will give away before he dies, but it would seem that some of his many millions given to the hospitals would do the people more good than all the marble library buildings he could erect. The relief of suffering and affording the facilities of restoring sick and injured people to better health, would be an active every-day act of charity. The erection of marble library buildings is a display of wealth that does the actual needy people of the land little good. But it is Mr. Carnegie's money, and if he cannot see his way clear to help build our public hospital, we must build it ourselves without his assistance. Contributions for this purpose may be given to B. P. Richards, treasurer, at H. F. Dutton & Company's bank.

ROAD MACHINERY HAS ARRIVED

When Government Expert Arrives Work Will Begin on Road.

THE MACHINERY IS MODERN

It Comprises Everything Necessary for the Building of Hard Roads, and With the Material at Hand an Excellent Example Can be Made.

The road machinery of the United States government, department of road inquiry, which was consigned several days ago from Beaver Dam, Va., to Gainesville, has arrived, and is now in the yards of the Atlantic Coast Line, awaiting the arrival of Government Expert W. L. Spoon, who has been detailed to superintend the constructing the mile of object lesson road in Alachua county.

The machinery occupies two immense flat cars, and comprises a traction engine, roller, crusher, scraper and other machinery necessary to the making of good roads. It will demonstrate to the people of Alachua county not only what material to employ in the construction of their public highways, but also the class, weight and nature of machinery to be used.

The official records of the Board of County Commissioners, at their meeting in December of the past year, when the order was made that the sum of $1,000 be appropriated to defray the county's proportion of expense in the construction of this mile of sample road, show that the road will be built on the Gainesville-Newbeary road, one mile West from Hog Town Creek. There has been some discussion as to whether the board at that meeting designated a route, but the records are evident that this route was selected and the money deposited for that purpose.

The work will no doubt be under the personal direction of Col. Spoon, who is now superintending a similar experiment in Duval county. As soon as this is completed, which cannot be longer than two or three days, he will come at once to Gainesville and take up the work here.

Colonel Spoon, who is a practical road-builder, has been in the employ of the government in this capacity for many years. He is so well versed in his occupation that he can, by merely picking up a stone or any other substance, determine whether it would be suited for road-building. He paid Alachua county a high compliment when he was here a few weeks ago selecting material by the statement that this county contained as fine road-building material as could be found in the United States, and the government verified this statement in an analysis, in which the department reported that the deposits of material from Alachua were the best found in Florida.

As soon as Colonel Spoon arrives work will begin, and the road will be completed in a short time.

WILLIAMS GOT WRONG.

Tried to Kill Companions, and Now Must Suffer the Consequences.

Deputy Sheriff John A. Thomas of Willeford arrived in the city Friday evening, having in custody a negro who hails under the name of Alva Williams.

Williams, it is alleged, attempted to break up a negro festival at Willeford Thursday night by shooting into the room. He used a double-barreled breech-loading gun for the purpose, and for a few moments matters were a little animated in the gay and festive hall. When quiet was finally restored it was discovered that three men, companions of Williams, who were attending the festival, had been injured, but not seriously.

Williams was arrested and given a hearing Friday before the justice of that district, the charge having been assault with intent to murder. He was committed to jail, in default of bail, to await the action of the spring term of the circuit court.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Mrs. F. E. Williams and family desire to thank their host of friends for the many kindnesses shown them during the late illness of Mr. F. E. Williams, who departed this life February 2nd, 1905, at his home in Alachua, Florida. May God's richest blessings rest upon each of them and may they be rewarded a hundred-fold for each kind word and act shown.

The family of H. F. Watts have removed to the Carpenter residence, East Gainesville, where they are now pleasantly located. It will be remembered that Mr. Watts had the misfortune recently to lose his valuable home in the country by fire, the home and all its contents being burned. He expects to build after awhile, but for the present will make his home in this city.

J. W. Bailey, who lives eight miles west of the city, brought to The Sun office on Saturday a peculiar specimen of reptile, resembling an alligator in many ways except the head. It was about six inches in length, with alligator legs and spots, but our zoologist insisted that it was a water lizard. The specimen was turned over to the Brown House zoological garden to develop.

The spring term of the circuit court of Levy county will open at Bronson Tuesday of the coming week, and many of our attorneys who have business before the court are making preparations to attend. There will be a number of important cases before the court, and in a majority of them Gainesville professional talent has been secured. It is anticipated that at this session the court will last the full two weeks.

The fountain which is to be erected by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. has been placed upon the ground, and will be installed in a few days. The basement has already been received and modelled, and in a couple of weeks the fountain will stand as a monument to the efforts of the noble women of the order. The fountain will be upright, of bronze, and will be an ornament to the east side of the square.

Mr. Williams' Funeral.

Parties arriving from Alachua Saturday afternoon state that the funeral of Furman E. Williams, the sad death of whom has already appeared in this paper, was largely attended Saturday morning, friends and relatives from every section of the county being present to pay the last tribute of esteem and respect to the deceased.

The interment was in the Newnansville cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. W. C. Foster, the Baptist minister of Alachua. At the conclusion of this service, the funeral was held under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, of which deceased has been for many years a prominent member.

The death of Mr. Williams will be sadly felt not only in Alachua, but in other sections of the county, where he was well and favorably known.

D. E. Thompson of The St. Augustine Record was called to Georgia on Monday to the bedside of his aged mother, who was reported seriously ill, with slight hope for recovery.

The manatee, or sea cow, thought several years ago to be nearly extinct, is frequently seen along the Atlantic coast. A dozen were seen at the mouth of the Miami River a short time ago.

The Courier-Informant is doing good work in booming Polk county, and if a well patronized paper is any criterion, Bartow and vicinity has the right kind of people to make a prosperous community.

It is now believed that the recent Kirby tragedy at Wauchula, in which John Kirby, his wife and four children came to their death, was the work of the despondent wife and mother, who crushed their skulls with a hammer and then shot herself. They were very poor.

J. P. Browning, who has charge of building the new road south of Port Orange, brought up three enormous oyster shells picked at random from the big shell mound which has recently been opened up. Two of these shells are long and narrow and will measure three and one-half by two inches, while the other one is fully three inches either way. Mr. Browning says the shell mound is fully a mile long and has been opened up to a depth of 20 feet; how much deeper it goes he has no idea.—Daytona Evening News.

A VERY CLEVER CATCH.

Deputy Granger Bags Charlie Williams—Owns to Stealing Money.

Deputy Sheriff Granger has added another to his clever string of catches in placing Charlie Williams of Rochelle, an Afro-American citizen, behind the bars charged with unlawfully coming into possession of the pocket-book of Captain Peake, conductor on the High Springs and Citra branch of the Atlantic Coast Line.

The bocket-book was stolen some time on Wednesday and Captain Peake reported his loss to Deputy Granger, who commenced business at once. He saw Williams about the city, noticing the fact that he had purchased a new uniform—being a flagman on the Atlantic Coast Line, also observing that Williams was spending money quite freely. Feeling confident he was the man for whom he was looking, he marched Williams into camp and after a search of his person found the pocket-book and about twenty dollars of the money. The prisoner was put through a course of questioning, when he finally owned up to the theft. He was locked up in the county jail Wednesday night and will be brought before Justice Colman this morning for a preliminary hearing.

Conductor Peake was unable to state when or how Williams got the pocket-book, but it was thought he picked it up when the conductor was engaged making out his returns. The amount of money it contained he was unable to state. He was lucky, however, in placing the matter in the hands of Deputy Granger, who ran his man down in short order before he had time to use up all the money.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women." Jolly Hunting Party.

That was a jolly hunting party comprising A. O. Steenburg, J. M. Dell, W. R. Steckert, and Dr. Sangston of Uniontown, Pa., who went on a hunting trip Thursday, which resulted in a big success.

The only unpleasant (?) feature of the hunt was a determination of Captain Dell, who is the boss hunter of this section, to "out-do" Mr. Steckert, who is somewhat of a marksman himself. Captain Dell declared he would kill more game in one shot than Mr. Steckert would destroy in a whole day, but in the general wind-up it was discovered that Mr. Steckert not only bagged more birds than Captain Dell, but twice as many as the whole bunch put together.

Question—How many birds did Mr. Steckert kill?

A premium will be offered to the first party giving the correct answer.

Itch—Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable. I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ringworm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1 bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Streets Being Improved.

It is a source of satisfaction to note the various improvements which are being made upon the streets in various sections of the city, as well as the rapid building and extension of others.

Within the past few months not less than five miles of streets and roads have been constructed, and they have been constructed in a systematic manner, of material that will last.

Among the most important municipal improvements in this direction is the paving of streets in East Gainesville. The property owners of that section, full of energy and enterprise, have assisted the city wonderfully in this great work, with the result that almost every principal street in that section of the city has been properly graded and paved. This enhances the value of property largely, to say nothing of the convenience afforded.

The depressions in some of the streets which have been in evidence for many months are being filled in, and altogether the improvement in streets has been very noticeable to the people here.

Rebekah Supper.

The supper given by the Daughters of Rebekah at the opera house Friday night was well patronized, despite the inclement weather, and the Daughters express themselves as being well pleased. The menu consisted of all kinds of good things to eat at reasonable prices, and they were served in a manner most tempting.

The proceeds of this supper will be used in defraying the expense of the representatives of the Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., upon their visit to Gainesville during the session of the Grand Lodge, which will convene in April.

LETTUCE MOVEMENT WAS VERY HEAVY

Seven to Eight Carloads Will Comprise Week's Shipment.

NOW BRINGING FINE PRICES

The Product in the Markets of the East is Averaging $2.50 Per Basket, and Growers Who Were Safe are Reaping Great Benefit.

Notwithstanding that reports show the recent cold weather to have been disastrous to the lettuce crop, the Gainesville section continues to ship this excellent product in carload lots, and before the end of the week, which will be tonight, at least seven solid carloads will have moved to the markets of the East.

By the Gainesville section it is intended to include every farm within five miles of the district. While the growers have been considerably damaged, there is yet a large acreage in lettuce which is being marketed, and the price is good, ranging from $2 to $3 per basket, meaning a fair average of $2.50.

The Armour Car Line is handling the product nicely. The lettuce reaches New York in good condition, and is said to be as good as ever left the State.

J. P. Kennedy, representative of the Armour Lines in this section, states that Friday night one car from Gainesville and one car from Rocky Point were moved, consigned to the New York markets. These cars were made up from the various growers of the section, and contained three hundred and fifty baskets each. It is expected that another car, possibly two, may go forward today, which will make from seven to eight cars for the present week.

The cabbage crop having been only recently set, it is believed that the damage was only slight, probably twenty per cent. It was fortunate, if it should come at all, that the cold snap arrived at this time, as there were very few vegetables planted, and the growers will not sustain such a serious loss.

Reports from Evinston, McIntosh, Reddick and other points in that section indicate that, while a great deal of headed lettuce was frozen, the vegetable crop as a rule is safe. Young lettuce and protected lettuce was not injured to any extent.

Reports show that there were nineteen cars of Florida lettuce unloaded on the New York market Monday, but despite this the prices held up.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remed, for I have used it with perfect success. My child, Garland, is subject to severe attacks of croup, and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by all druggists.

A Deserved Compliment.

In referring to Prof. M. C. McIntosh, chief clerk of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Holloway, an exchange pays him a high compliment, but a deserving one. Prof. McIntosh is from Alachua county, and has been for several years engaged in the profession of teaching here, Archer being his last school. The exchange says:

"Superintendent Holloway is ably assisted by Mr. M. C. McIntosh of Alachua county as chief clerk. Mr. McIntosh is eminently qualified for this important position. He is a graduate of Emory College, Georgia, and has filled satisfactorily many responsible positions."

Mr. McIntosh's qualifications for the position he has been honored with are such as to commend him to the educational interests of the State. He has for several years been connected with the leading educational institutions of Alachua county, and his record as a teacher—one who is enthusiastic and thorough in his work—is an excellent one. Those who know him are confident that Mr. Holloway will find in Mr. McIntosh a valuable assistant.

OFFENSIVE CATARRH

I suffered for a long time with a bad case of Catarrh, and took a great deal of medicine without any benefit.

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly

I heard of your S. S. S. and wrote you. I commenced to use it, and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. MISS MARY L. STORM.
Cor. 7th & Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 29, 1903.

I had Nasal Catarrh for years for which I used S. S. S. with very gratifying results. I tried local applications for some time, and getting no permanent relief I came to the conclusion that the seat of the trouble was in the blood. Knowing S. S. S. to be a good blood medicine I began its use, and after using it for some little while it did away entirely with the offensive mucus in the nostrils, and I did not have to hawk and spit, especially in the morning, to dislodge the catarrhal matter.

1627 South St. FRED H. PRESSY.

The filthy secretions and foul mucus that are continually dropping back into the throat, find their way into the stomach and are absorbed into the blood. Catarrh then becomes constitutional, and the only way to get rid of it is through the blood. Write us if you have Catarrh, and our physicians will advise you without charge.

CARPENTERS ORGANIZING.

White Carpenters Have Fine Union. Colored Are Coming Together.

The carpenters of this city and section, apparently with a desire to adopt some uniform scale in the matter of wages, are coming together, and propose to have an understanding. This does not only apply to the white wielders of the saw and hammer, but the colored followers of the trade are acting in accord.

The carpenters, like other people who have regular trades, do not believe in giving their knowledge and their services for a mere song. They are masters of the situation as far as they are concerned, and have decided to get together.

Considering the size of the city there is no point in the South, or anywhere else, which can boast of more competent carpenters than Gainesville. But they have been disorganized, and work has been let out at almost any price people were willing to pay.

But the carpenters got wise. It was not because they felt inclined to "gouge" the people; it was not because they wanted more for their services than any good carpenter would charge; but it was because they were aware of the fact that, on account of disorganization, they were pulling against each other, and were really not receiving the just merits of their labors.

It was this that prompted the white carpenters to organize a union—not to agonize the contractor and builder, but to protect themselves. The union was organized, a scale of wages fixed, and now everything is running smoothly. The white union comprises thirty-one members, and is in a prosperous and satisfactory condition to all interested.

The colored carpenters are arranging to form a union, and when this is done there will be a uniform scale throughout the city.

Croup

Begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment to the throat.

Mrs. A. Vliet, New Castle, Colo., writes, March 19th, 1901: "I think Ballard's Horehound Syrup a wonderful remedy, and so pleasant." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

WILL OPEN NORMAL.

East Florida Seminary Will Add New Feature on March 13th.

As is usual each year, the East Florida Seminary will begin on Marth 13th a normal department, at which those desiring to take a teacher's examination may become familiar with the studies to which they will be subjected.

The normal department of this institution was conducted last year with great success, many having taken advantage of the opportunity to attend the session. The class is intended especially for teachers, and special studies will be inaugurated, but those who attend may have the privilege of the regular collegiate course of the institution if they so desire.

Prof. Jere M. Pound, superintendent of the institution, stated yesterday in conversation with The Sun reporter, that it was his desire to make the coming term an especially favorable and successful one, and that he desired to inform those who desired to attend in plenty time. The school will prove of great benefit to those who desire to study a normal course, besides giving them the advantage of a collegiate course if they desire. The studies will be under direct supervision of Superintendent Pound, with his able corps of assistants, and it goes without saying that no better opportunity will be offered anywhere in the State.

For those desiring to enter a small fee will be charged, to cover the expense of the session. The term will begin March 13th, and will continue ten weeks. An entrance fee of $5 will be required, and board may be secured at the barracks for $10 per month. Those desiring to secure accommodations outside the barracks may do so at a little advanced price.

All persons interested may address Prof. Jere M. Pound, superintendent East Florida Seminary, for further particulars.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N.Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" It in The Sun.

E. D. White of Hague, one of the progressive farmers of that section, was among the traders to this city yesterday.

F. H. Clyatt of Clyatt Station, one of the most progressive citizens of that section, was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

H. C. Stevens, the jeweler of High Springs and watch inspector for the Atlantic Coast Line, was among the visitors to this city yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Newberry of High Springs was in the city for a few hours yesterday. She was en route to Micanopy, where she will visit friends.

J. B. Dell, Jr., who is now making his home at the Dell homestead, Hague, was among those who paid the county capital a visit yesterday.

Taken Up—About December 1, a small bay mare came to my place, about three years old. Owner will apply to J. L. Matthews, Bland, Fla.

The residence of Captain J. Maxey Dell, East Gainesville, is being improved by an addition of a bath room on the north side. This addition will afford Captain Dell and his family one of the most comfortable homes in this section.

J. Purdee Carter of Micanopy was among those who favored Gainesville with a visit yesterday. Mr. Carter has been indisposed for several months, and his Gainesville friends will be gratified at the information that his condition is greatly improved.

S. L. Turner of of Micanopy, one of the best farmers in the county, was trading in the city yesterday. Mr. Turner came for the purpose of taking several hundred pounds of fresh pork from the cold storage, but after arriving here decided to allow it to remain for a few days longer. He is one of the farmers who makes all the meat and grain his family can consume.

R. T. Schafer, the North Gainesville baker, was the victim of an accident Wednesday from which he sustained a sprained ankle, and which has inconvenienced him considerably. Mr. Schafer, in alighting from his wagon, in some way turned his left foot sufficiently to produce the result. He continued his duties, however, and aside from a little inconvenience is "right side up."

The Woodmen of the World, local camp, held an interesting meeting last night, at which State Organizer C. H. Dame of Ocala was in attendance. Mr. Dame made an appropriate and impressive address to the members present, which inspired them with a determination to increase the membership. The Woodmen is one of the finest fraternal insurance orders in the State, and there is a fine lodge here.

Chas. R. Carter, for several years employed as a conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line, has tendered his resignation, and will engage in the mercantile business at Ocala, having purchased one of the largest and most successful groceries in the Brick City. Captain Carter is well known in this section, having been formerly a conductor on the High Springs-Micanopy run. He is quite popular, and the traveling public will regret to lose his services.

Yesterday, February 2, was what is called "ground hog" day, when it is said the ground hog, or woodchuck, comes from his hole where he has been hibernating for the winter, and if the sun shines so he can see his shadow, he returns to his winter quarters, and in the northern latitudes six weeks more of winter may be expected. If the sun don't shine, warm weather will soon come. This rule does not always hold good, but the sun did not appear yesterday, so we may expect fair weather.

C. P. Huffman of Melrose, the popular proprietor of the Huffman House, was in the city yesterday for the purpose of consulting Dr. J. H. Alderman in regard to some dental work. Mr. Huffman is a Northerner by birth, but has been in this section so long that he might properly be termed a "Cracker"—and he is a good one, too, for none more enterprising ever lived. He has done a great deal for Melrose in the matter of attracting tourists there, and deserves the thanks of the people of that progressive town for his energy.

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 24, 1890.

Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried different doctors and their remedies for several years for back and kidney troubles, I found nothing successful until taking The Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and being rapidly cured, the old saying with railroad men is "God bless the man who invented the Pullman sleeping car," but I say "God bless the inventor of Hall's Texas Wonder." Yours truly, W. B. CLARK.
M. & O. R. R. Co., Mobile, Ala.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

Agent Welch of the Southern Express Company returned a day or two ago from points in Lake and Sumter counties, where he has been in the capacity of acting route agent for the company. Mr. Welch states that he made a thorough investigation of the condition of affairs as a result of the recent cold snap. A great many of the vegetables and some fruit was frozen, but the trees were unhurt, even the tenderest sprig withstanding the cold. About sixty per cent of the orange crop had been shipped, and, inasmuch as all the fruit was not frozen, the loss will not be so severe. The people are happy and prosperous.

Gainesville's lively suburb, North Gainesville, keeps apace with the times. The people of that section are a progressive set, and always avail themselves of an opportunity. They are always found talking of the advantages of North Gainesville, with the result that they have created a demand for houses which is astonishing. An enterprising merchant of that burg stated yesterday that residences were very scarce, and it was doubtful whether one could be found for rent in the place. The North Gainesville people are as clever as were ever born, and it is no wonder that houses are always in demand in that suburb.

Although the weather was rather unfavorable, the entertainment at the opera house last night, given by the Twentieth Century Club, was well patronized. The musical program as well as literary numbers were admirably rendered. The singing by the old favorites was heartily received and the recitations well rendered. A detailed report of the entertainment will appear later. Owing to the fact that Miss Wimberly, who was on the program for several numbers, was suffering from an attack of la grippe, she was unable to appear. This was very much regretted by the audience, as she is considered one of the most gifted elocutionists in the South.
